

Honesdale High School to Stage Disney's The Little Mermaid! & Host Character Breakfast!

For Immediate Release

Contact: Scott D. Miller, Executive Director

Honesdale, Pennsylvania - The Honesdale High School Performing Arts will present "Disney's The Little Mermaid." with music by Alan Menken, lyrics by Howard Ashman and Glenn Slater, and book by Doug Wright with license through Music Theatre International. Disney's The Little Mermaid. is playing at Honesdale Performing Arts Center, on the campus of Honesdale High School Friday, February 17 and Saturday, February 18 at 7:00 p.m, and Sunday, February 19 at 2:00 p.m. The cast is also hosting a Disney Character Breakfast Buffet on Saturday, February 18 at 9:00 a.m. The musical, is based on the 2008 Broadway production and the 1989 animated feature film.

In a magical kingdom fathoms below, the beautiful young mermaid Ariel longs to leave her ocean home to live in the world above. However, leaving her life under the sea means defying her father, King Triton. Ariel makes a deal with the evil sea witch, Ursula, and it seems that all her dreams are coming true. But can she convince Prince Eric that she's the girl with the enchanting voice? With help from Sebastian, Flounder, Scuttle, and all her other sea-faring friends, Ariel discovers the importance of following your heart, whether on tail or on foot. With well-known songs such as "Under the Sea," "Kiss the Girl," "Poor Unfortunate Souls," and the popular "Part of Your World," this musical will surely have theatre patrons of all ages "flippin'" their fins.

"So many times parents ask, is your production of The Little Mermaid good for kids?" – explains Scott D. Miller, executive director, "I always say Did Nemo have a funny-lookin' flipper? By all means, this show is tailor-made for the kids! Even the young-young ones won't be scared by that mean ol' Miss Ursula, whose lair is accented with tricky stage effects. The last thing your kids will want to do is close their eyes. Adults may get teary eyed toward the end, but kids won't want to leave the theater!"
